UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

In re:	)	Chapter 11
CELSIUS NETWORK LLC, et al. , <sup>1</sup>	)	Case No. 22-10964 (MG)
Debtors.	)	(Jointly Administered.)

THREE HUNDRED AND NINETY SEVEN CELSIUS CREDITORS RESPOND TO D.R.
1502: FORMAL EXPRESSION OF DISSATISFACTION WITH THE OFFICIAL
COMMITTEE OF UNSECURED CREDITORS' LIMITED OBJECTION TO THE DEBTORS' AMENDED MOTION FOR ENTRY OF AN ORDER (I) ESTABLISHING OWNERSHIP OF ASSETS IN THE DEBTORS' EARN PROGRAM, (II) PERMITTING
THE SALE OF STABLECOIN IN THE ORDINARY COURSE AND (III) GRANTING RELATED RELIEF

We, the undersigned 397 Celsius creditors,<sup>2</sup> are writing to the Court to express our dissatisfaction with the representation of our interests by the Unsecured Creditors' Committee (UCC).

<sup>1</sup> The Debtors in these chapter 11 cases, along with the last four digits of each Debtor's federal tax identification number, are: Celsius Network LLC (2148); Celsius KeyFi LLC (4414); Celsius Lending LLC (8417); Celsius Mining LLC (1387); Celsius Network Inc. (1219); Celsius Network Limited (8554); Celsius Networks Lending LLC (3390); and Celsius US Holding LLC (7956). The location of Debtor Celsius Network LLC's principal place of business and the Debtors' service address in these chapter 11 cases is 121 River Street, PH05, Hoboken, New Jersey 07030.

In their latest filing, the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors' Limited Objection to the Debtors' Amended Motion for Entry of an Order (i) Establishing Ownership of Assets in the Debtors' Earn Program, (ii) Permitting the Sale of Stablecoin in the Ordinary Course and (iii) Granting Related Relief, D.R. 1502, the UCC has refused to take up the mantle of defending depositors' interests.

By endorsing the debtors' improper claim to title of depositors' assets, the UCC is abdicating their duty to represent depositors. Indeed, the single uniting focus for depositors is to recover as much of our assets as possible, as soon as possible. We want our assets back, not to fund the next Celsius misadventure or another four months of bankruptcy thumb-twiddling.

Literally every single piece of evidence other than the maliciously worded and surreptitiously edited terms of service show that Earn assets are depositor property.<sup>3</sup> Several of the undersigned have submitted compelling arguments which prove the title of our assets legally should remain with us, a position endorsed by the New Jersey Bureau of Consumer Affairs in their most recent filing, D.R. 1498.

It is clear the UCC does not represent our interests at this time. We expect the UCC to change its position on Earn account ownership. Furthermore, we ask that new committee members be added; ones that will actually communicate with fellow creditors and serve their constituency properly.

The individuals whose signatures appear below each state as follows: "I declare under penalty of perjury, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, that I am a Celsius customer, that I am signing this filing on behalf of myself, and that the information I have provided herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief."

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: December 2, 2022
Silver Spring, Maryland

PERSONAL COMMENTS FROM CELSIUS CUSTOMERS

Your Honor, we really need new UCC members who have been on the ground for months now and have done a ton of work that needs to be utilized. Thank you.

Irina, Ventura County, CA

Dear Judge, small Celsius users are suffering, please help us.

Omar bin Fazan, Ipoh, Malaysia

The money in my Celsius account is my personal life savings. I just want it back :(

Peter Gray, Newark, California

I absolutely detest the performance of our existing UCC. They have taken a back seat to more motivated creditors who have been forced to carry the weight they have dropped by submitting compelling motions against unlawful and unfair decisions requested by the Debtor. Celsius has been uncooperative during this bankruptcy and the UCC has done little more than push Alex Mashinsky out of his role of CEO. We need active and communicative representation by a UCC that has the majority of creditor desires in mind.

Alberto Jimenez, Springfield, VA

I held USDC as an alternative to my cash emergency fund under the assumption that my risk was tied to underlying fluctuation of USDC. Not to give Celsius the right to use my funds to pay other creditors.

Alexander Medin, Newport Beach, California

I want my assets back asap. I refuse to fund the next Celsius misadventure. Thank you!

Deniz Levenberg, Austin, TX

Is the UCC colluding with the debtor Celsius? They are working against creditors' interests. The UCC does not represent me. I am one of the top 10% creditors, so sad.

Viola Siu Ping Lo, Harris Park, NSW, Australia

Celsius can establish a claim on my asset if I had engaged in a sale of my asset. I have used Celsius as a Bank Account/Custodian where I was promised I would earn some interest by depositing my assets with them. I was not asked to sell my assets to them. They cannot choose to enforce a grab-all deposits tactic only after losing our assets because of their bad business acumen. Before that, they were treating our assets like they were custodians where we were free to take our assets elsewhere. The rules should not be enforced differently post and pre bankruptcy filing.

Bal Krishna Jha, Lorton, Virginia

Coins on Celsius are in the ownership of Celsius creditors.

shawn steinborn, Phoenix, AZ

Your Honor, throughout every AMA, email, YouTube video, post on blogs and Twitter, ownership of our coins prior to Celsius filing for CH11 had ever been in question - in fact the CEO himself regularly lured new customers on the back of Celsius features and the fact that no one ever had an issue withdrawing THEIR tokens! The audacity of this company to state that our funds suddenly belong to them AFTER they mismanaged them is absurd! I appreciate your consideration and hope you see that their actions do not warrant any further loss from us, the depositors (creditors), and maximum recovery should be of utmost importance - not more of our funds going to this failed, untrustworthy company.

Christopher Paul Birnbaum, Saint Petersburg, Florida

The UCC MUST represent all parties. There is clear legal precedent that our coins belong to us. We need to have a group that represents the large cohort of non US customers of Celsius. The UCC really needs to reconsider their current stance and the implications of not supporting our rights to our property.

Jonathan Malcolm Boyd, Johor Bahru, Malaysia

If the UCC supports the Estate on Earn ownership then the UCC is corrupt and has violated their responsibilities as a fiduciary in every capacity

Curt Dell, United States

- 1.No taxable event was triggered upon transfer from customer to debtor
2. Customers paid taxes on gains
3. Debtor would send customer back property with no taxable event
4. Interest was paid into EARN (which the debtor claims to also own?)
- 5.The Debtor was enticing more deposits with promotional codes and time specific incentives
- 6.The Debtor comingled funds from earn, borrow, custody and withhold
- 7.The Debtor changed its TOS seven times in their advantage after knowingly insolvent
8. The Debtor acted in bad faith to its customers
9. The Debtor made numerous public material misrepresentations
10. The Debtor was offering illegal unregistered securities to non-accredited investors

Norman Hirsch, Juno Beach, Florida

Alex Mashinsky stole my daughter's money.

Pablo Sturm Hernandez, Marbella, Spain

I can't believe this is even a serious question. Why would anyone willingly give up their life's savings?

Jason Deon Mayhew, Salt Lake, Utah

We seek only the return of our personal assets.

Douglas Ross Stringer, San Antonio, Texas

Customers' coins rightfully belong to the customers as also stated in BlockFi TOS.

Tan Chye Teck, Singapore

God bless you, please make the right decision for the creditors
Juan Camilo Castillo Giron, Australia

Your Honor - This is a group of normal everyday people. Families with kids, senior citizens - people who believed that this is a legitimate, well managed and transparent organization, where in reality the Celsius senior leaders were just gambling with literally the life's savings of hundreds of individuals.

I genuinely believe that the American justice system is the only place in this whole world where the judges could side with individual earn account holders/investors who will be impacted brutally and not Celsius which at this point is clear in its intention to loot the remaining funds.
Vaibhav Pawar, Arlington Heights, IL

My crypto is my property. I would not give away my life savings to Celsius. I would not be paying taxes on the interest earned on my crypto. My crypto has always belonged to me. Please don't let Celsius misrepresent this.
Jesus Ayala Jr., Chicago, IL

The crypto assets in Custody and Earn belong to the customers and not to Celsius management. This is ridiculous that this is being called into question.
Eric Chan, La Habra, California

We have been paying taxes on these assets, if they were not our possessions then why issue 1099 forms?
Doug Leung, Lafayette, Indiana

Unfortunately Celsius has my family's assets. I'm a single mother with two sons. Please give OUR coins back asap.
Frances Jones, Sydney, Australia

I'm 20 years old. Please give my money back, I need it asap!
Liam Nguyen-Jones Sydney, Australia

I'm a military officer and single dad. This has crippled me by about 3 years. Please do the right thing. Return the ownership of the coins to the people - not the corporations
Bernard Mutz, Dayton, Ohio

Honorable Judge Glenn, it is ludicrous that the UCC, the ones supposed to represent the creditors, are actually taking a stand against the creditors with regards to tittle ownership and property rights. There are too many people who have been completely wrecked as a result of scammer Mashinsky. Time is of the essence to get as many of us made as whole as possible. Please hold them accountable to return our assets.
Ptolemy Sinclair Petrie, Colorado Springs, Colorado USA

Celsius has mismanaged our funds and has now spent enough of our funds in this Ch11 process.

Philip Charles Harding, Cardiff, United Kingdom

The UCC has promised fair and open discussion on all major decisions which it is failing to abide by. I strongly feel the present Committee is biased and needs to be reorganized.

RAVI V ALAPATI, ATLANTA, GA

Owning my Earn account implies credibility, responsibility and professionalism; none of them recognised in Celsius.

Sheila Ferreira, Viana do Castelo, Portugal

Agreed and signed by R. D.

Raminta Didikaite, London, England

I do not support under any circumstances the debtors claiming ownership or investing the assets I deposited on Earn.

Peter Mcloughlin, Thomastown, Ireland

Your Honor, it seems incredible misleading and unfair that a company can coerce people to deposit their life savings into their platform under the notion they are a safe and secure way for depositors to not be taken advantage of by banks and then, later on, sneak in language in a lengthy updated terms of service that essentially says they now own the depositors coins. If this sort of behavior and deception isn't called out in a United States court then it will only continue and we will see other firms try similar tactics to separate people from their funds. Please prove to people that the US court system will uphold sovereignty of one's assets and do not allow businesses to victimize people through the use of quickly changing terms of service documents.

Benjamin Patton, Dorado, PR

The UCC has shown it is not working in the best interest of the unsecured creditors. Selling my coins to keep the circus going? Who in their right mind, knowing the facts we are all aware of now, would be giving Celsius what it wants. They stole my savings!

Rien Vanmarcke, Brugge, Belgium

Many in the community have stated that it is preferred to accept 50% of what is ours right now rather than to have these proceedings drag on any longer. It is recognized that the longer this case goes on the more other entities (UCC, legal teams) will spend money from what is left to reward themselves for hours allegedly worked, all the while getting us no closer to some sort of recompense of what is rightfully and legally ours, despite attempts to prove otherwise. We look forward to a favorable judgment on behalf of the many who trusted Celsius to act as good agents and dramatically proved otherwise.

Todd Friedman, Park City, Utah

Thank you so much for your help Judge Glenn! Please protect us from these scammers, at least we get something in return.

Arwed Kubisch, Luneburg, Germany

Celsius insists on "your coins" in all their marketing and promotional materials. The coins are ours.

Calum Ip, Hong Kong, Hong Kong

Mashinsky told us every week that the coins were ours, that Celsius was safer than a bank, that there was 0 risk, that it was like a savings account. That bank runs were impossible. I have videos to prove it. Lies week in week out for years. He used those lies to convince us to put our life savings on Celsius. Now I can't make rent nor pay for my child's education. While he pulled out all his money. The UCC is not acting in the best interest of creditors. No communication and taking stances that 90% creditors disagree with.

Philippe Hegi, Hong Kong

You will find the majority of creditors want nothing to do with anybody employed by Celsius. We have been deceived enough and now want the coins left in their current possession back. Allowing the choice of a reorganisation bid under new management would be preferred over chapter 7 as it may allow for potential upside in equity form.

Thibault Giffard, Salford, England

Justice

maarten robaeys, Merchtem, Vlaams-Brabant, Belgium

Multiple hours of searchable video, audio, and ad copy / print advertising dictated to customers these were our coins available to withdraw when we needed them. Acting in any manner otherwise is deceptive and despicable.

Chad Michael Otte, Morgantown, WV

Please help us keep our deposits! Thank you.

Benjamin Baker, Morgantown, West Virginia

Customer deposits are customer assets. Celsius was advertised as better than a bank

Jordan J Oglesby, Los Angeles, California

Creditors First.

Mark Souvigny, Phoenixville, Pennsylvania

I was parking my USDC coins on the Celsius platform. My USDC coins are my property and should be released back to me. USDC should be treated as a cash account. No one should have the right to my cash account.

igor bekker, BROOKLYN, new york

My life savings in Earn, Custody and Collateral belong to me. Alex (the former CEO of Celsius) misrepresented the actual risks he was taking. He made it seem like institutional loans were over collateralized and Earn was safe like a bank. Please return my life savings.

Alejandro Carballo, Irvine, California

Funds were for my son & daughter's college

Christopher D Fay, Plano, Texas

Celsius should not be allowed to burn through our coins/assets, especially considering those assets were obtained through repeated false and potentially fraudulent claims to us depositors

waqas keen, San Francisco, California

Sons college fund.

Carla Gravenkemper, Plano, Texas

Will you leave us with nothing sir!?

Vincent DiMartino, Homosassa, FL

UCC might need modifications to better align with what we have been lead to believe about Celsius.

Kinney B, TX, USA

I assumed when I deposit my cash into Celsius to purchase coins that I was the legal owner of those coins. I don't recall signing a Terms of Service Agreement when I made the deposits.

Steven Gregory Dagg, Franklin, Tennessee

Fully agree with the content of this petition

Ryan mackie, Fife Scotland

Celsius lied about how they ran their business. Celsius lied about the security of their platform and the cooperation with state officials. I put my life savings in Celsius as a non accredited investor in February and believed my money was going towards over collateralized p2p loans as that's what was marketed. I have no idea why or how my money dissipated in only 4 months. It makes no sense at all other than celsius was likely operating already insolvent and likely as a Ponzi and a fraud. I am not surprised that most insiders have nothing or very little on the platform outside of their fake token CEL. They took our money and lied. They do not get a single line in their TOC to hold up if the whole operation was a sham.

EXHIBIT A - VIDEO: TRANSCRIPT OF CELSIUS NETWORK AMA, JULY 24, 2020

Q: So Alex, this question is for you. It comes from Bob. Why is there no insurance offered for deposits of Bitcoin? How do I know you will be around to return the Bitcoin?

A: So, when you give us Bitcoin, it's not like it's ours, right? It's yours. Legally, it is still your Bitcoin. The only thing we do is when you lend us your Bitcoin, we lend them to people who pay us interest. When they return them, it goes back to the wallet, and it's still yours from that wallet. So the question is really: is the wallet insured? And you hear all over the place people saying: I have insurance... (Emphasis added.)
